BA in LLC

Think global

Study local
Our new course offerings include:

- LLC 120 Global Crossings: The World Explained by Soccer
- LLC 130 Global Green: Coffee and Chocolate: From Production to Consumption
- LLC 250 Global Cultures Through Film
- LLC 599 Community-Based Service Learning

The Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures also offers a BA in Spanish and minors in American Sign Language, Chinese, French, German, Russian, and Spanish. Our graduate program allows students to complete the MA in Languages, Literatures, and Cultures with concentrations in French and Francophone Studies and Spanish! For more information please check out our website at www.uncg.edu/llc

Do you want to study languages and cultures? Do you want to engage with local and global communities? Do you want to increase your earning potential after graduation? Then the new BA in LLC is for you!

Contact Dr. Kathleen Macfie at kathleen_macfie@uncg.edu or llc_info@uncg.edu

With concentrations in:
- French and Francophone Studies
- German Studies
- Teacher Licensure (K-12) French and Spanish
- Global Languages and Communities