Pre-Baccalaureate Certificate for Advanced Applied Communication in Spanish

12 credit certificate for advanced second language learners and Spanish heritage learners who seek to enhance their proficiency in Spanish in preparation for professional interactions and settings where a strong proficiency in the language and intercultural competence is desirable or required.

One (1) course:
SPA 301: “Spanish Language and Cultures”

OR

SPA 302: "Spanish Language and Cultures for Heritage Speakers"

AND

Three (3) courses: at the Spanish 300-level
SPA 310: "Advanced Spanish Language and Cultures for Heritage Speakers"
SPA 311: “Views of the Hispanic World Through Intermediate Conversation”
SPA 313: “Views of the Hispanic World Through Intermediate Conversation Abroad”
SPA 315: "Intermediate Spanish Composition"
SPA 317: “Foundations in Hispanic Cultures, Literatures, and Films”
SPA 318: "Intermediate Spanish Composition for Heritage Speakers"
SPA 332: "Foundations in Spanish Cultures, Literatures and Films"
SPA 334: "Foundations in Latin American Cultures, Literatures and Films"
SPA 342: “Introduction to Hispanic Linguistics”
SPA 351: "Introduction to Literary Studies"

Goals of the Pre-Baccalaureate Certificates:

- Acquire skills in speaking, writing, reading, and listening in Spanish
- Apply skills in ways that are appropriate to conducting business in the Spanish-speaking world;
- Gain an understanding of topics and issues of importance in the Spanish-speaking world and to Spanish-speaking professionals in a variety of job sectors
- Develop intercultural competence to engage appropriately across cultural difference:
  - especially in relation to Hispanic/Latinx communities and the societies that interact with them